Election/Restrictions

An Election/Restrictions of Species is set forth as follows:

Due to the complexity and number of claims and figures involved, applicant's assistance is required in determining the number of inventions being claimed.

Accordingly, applicant is required to provide a list of claims and the figures to which each is directed. Then, applicant is required to select claims to a single Figure (invention).

Applicant is given thirty (30) days from the date of this letter to provide this list and selection to avoid the question of abandonment.
